

Ka Haka! Māori and Indigenous Performance Studies
Symposium 2018

Old ways of knowing, new ways of doing

CONTENTS

Introduction

Sharon Mazer

1. Kapa Haka in the 21st century: Reaching past the 'powers that be' to grow the art form

Te Rita Papesch

2. That was then, this is now: Māori Performance
Research Comes of Age

Sharon Mazer

3. Manu Tū Rangatira: The Plume of My Identity

Romana Potts

4. Sisters and SaVAgEs: Putting the VA in the Acti.VA.tion

Rosanna Raymond

5. The Tradition of Recycling Identity in Native Culture:
The Re-Traditioning of Tradition

Sara Moncada and Eddie Madril

6. Identity, Memory and Legacy: Indigenous Taiwan

Jolan Hsieh and Sifo Lakaw

7. Development and Contemporary Concepts of Taiwanese Indigenous Music and Dance

Pasuya Yasiungu

8. Constructing Ethnic Identity through Taiwanese
Indigenous Music and Dance Performances: The Case of TITV

Kacaw Fuyan

9. Performing difference differently: New ways of doing, old ways of seeing

Dione Joseph